

VOCABULARY

1 Make a list of the vocabulary you remember in the following categories.

Fruit	Vegetables	Poultry	Cooking fats	Type of egg
apples, _____	carrots, _____	chicken, _____	butter, _____	scrambled, _____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____

2 Match the type of pastry with their definitions. (see M3 - online worksheet 2)

- | | | |
|---------------------|----------------------------|--|
| 1 flaky pastry | a <input type="checkbox"/> | a light, twice-cooked pastry usually used for sweets and buns |
| 2 choux pastry | b <input type="checkbox"/> | paper-thin translucent sheets of pastry |
| 3 shortcrust pastry | c <input type="checkbox"/> | a type of pastry that consists of a lot of thin layers |
| 4 puff pastry | d <input type="checkbox"/> | a French sweet pastry with high sugar content and egg yolks for richness |
| 5 filo pastry | e <input type="checkbox"/> | a type of pastry that is very light and has a lot of air in it |
| 6 pâte sucrée | f <input type="checkbox"/> | a type of sweet or savoury pastry made from flour, butter |

GRAMMAR

3 Complete these sentences with the correct future form of the verbs.

- On today's show we _____ (prepare) Duck à l'orange.
- The pasta _____ (be) ready when the timer goes off.
- I _____ (meet) a new supplier for lunch today and we _____ (sample) some products.
- The chef _____ (prepare) freshly caught fish for the lunchtime service.
- Eating bad eggs _____ (give) you food poisoning.
- What _____ you _____ (do) with that leftover chicken?

4 Choose if or when in each of the following sentences.

- If/When* you find a potential new supplier, you will be able to talk to their existing customers.
- If/When* you use less fresh eggs, the shells will peel more easily.
- If/When* an egg is fresh, it will sink in water.
- If/When* an egg is raw, it won't spin.
- If/When* you bard a chicken with bacon, it will remain moist.
- If/When* you put the chicken in the oven, you will need to check it every 20 minutes.