

Object pronouns

1 Underline the correct subject or object pronoun.

- I / Me like ice cream.
- A 'Where is Katy?'
B 'She / Her is at school.'
- The teacher always gives them / they homework.
- Please listen to she / her.
- Are these cakes for us / we?
- This CD is for he / him.
- Susan always helps me / I.
- The boys want to meet we / us in Leicester Square.

2 Complete the sentences with he, him, she, her, they or them.

- A 'Does your father speak English?'
B 'Yes, he speaks English.'
- 'Where are your friends? _____ are very late!'
- A 'I don't like this actress.'
B 'Really? I like _____.'
- A 'Where are the children?'
B 'I can't see _____.'
- 'I don't know that man. Do you know _____?'
- A 'Where is Ann?'
B '_____ is in Madrid this week.'

3 Replace the underlined words with object pronouns.

- My sister is in the garden with John.
My sister is in the garden with him.
- David often goes out with his friends.
- Close the door, please.
- These ice creams are for my brother and I.
- I hate watching football.
- Who is that girl with Judy?
- She is crazy about horror films.
- I don't mind going on holiday with my parents.

4 Read the sentences, then complete the second sentence with the correct subject or object pronoun.

- Julie knows Sally.
She knows her.
- John studies with Paul and Joe.
_____ studies with _____.
- Mark plays basketball with Sue and Amy.
_____ plays basketball with _____.
- Mary eats two sandwiches for lunch.
_____ eats _____ for lunch.
- Mr and Mrs Smith live near school.
_____ live near _____.
- John and I see Sarah and you every day.
_____ see _____ every day.

5 Replace the underlined words with a subject pronoun and an object pronoun.

- The baby has got my mobile phone.
She has got it.
- Mr and Mrs Simms don't like rock concerts.
- Daniel plays with his dogs.
- Pass the newspaper to Rose, please.
- Does Thomas argue with Lisa?
- Rita has a present for Chris and you.
- Those flowers are for Sonia and me.
- My brother and I like crisps.
- Is Jonas with his girlfriend?
- Where have the kids got their skateboards?