- 1  Hong Kong
 2  Jamaica
 3  India

Britain has got a very large multicultural community and it is now difficult to find a stereotypical 'Brit' with a bowler hat, umbrella and black briefcase.

A lot of people from all over the world come to live and work in Britain. For example the Morgans come from Jamaica, but now live in Peckham, London. Another British family is the Lee family. They live in Liverpool, but are originally from Hong Kong. Gafur Singh lives in Leeds with his family, but comes from India. Gafur lives with his child and his British wife. His child has both Indian and British passports.

Many British people have families that come from other countries, for example Pakistan, Bangladesh, the Caribbean, Africa, China and many other countries from as far as South East Asia.
