

Grammar worksheet 3

should

Tutte le forme e risposte brevi

1 Complete the sentences.

You shouldn't run by the swimming pool.

- Alex _____ try harder at school.
- '_____ I invite Alice and Tom to the party?' 'Yes, you _____.'
- What _____ we do on Friday evening?
- You _____ speak so loudly in the library.
- You really _____ eat so many sweets and chocolate. They're bad for you!

2 Give advice using the prompts in brackets.

Jack is always tired. (go / bed early)
He should go to bed early.

- He wants to keep fit. (take up / a sport)

- He is late for school. (run)

- He is getting fatter. (eat / chocolate)

- He didn't have breakfast today. (skip)

- He has failed a test. (study harder)

3 Read these situations and give advice.

I'm really tired.
You should go to bed.

- She's always late.

- I didn't pass the maths test.

- My hair's too long.

- He hasn't got enough money.

- I've got toothache.

- I'm always hungry in the mornings.

could

Tutte le forme e risposte brevi

4 Complete the sentences with could or couldn't and the verbs from the box.

~~walk~~ drink be speak do

Could you walk 20 kilometres a day?

- I'm so thirsty I _____ a lake!
- _____ you _____ English?
- Leo _____ kick-boxing for nine hours. He isn't superman.
- Ellie _____ quiet for an hour. She loves talking!

5 Reorder the words to make requests.

you / could / pass / the / salt / me / please / ?
Could you pass me the salt, please?

- please / could / you / door / close / the / ?

- you / repeat / could / please / that / ?

- me / please / help / could / you / ?

- me / the / could / tell / you / time / please / ?

Present perfect con just, already, yet

6 Rewrite the sentences putting the adverbs in the right position.

We've had breakfast. (already)
We've already had breakfast.

- Amy and Sam have seen the Queen! (just)

- Have you done your homework? (yet)

- I haven't seen my sister. (yet)

- Melissa has arrived. (just)

- Dave has finished dinner. (already)
